Energy Checklist for Your Facility

Who's in charge of reducing energy in your facility? Everyone can be! Use this chart to assign energy saving activities to the Energy Activist Champions in your business. Everyone can play an important role in the conservation effort. This will also help you understand where energy is used in your facility and decide if machines, lights and other energy users should be on or off.

Task to be performed	Person in Charge	Time On	Time Off